

DWIGHT MARICA

STRANGE CHARMED BOTTOM

28.04 - 02.06.2012

*In order to create, I am provoking certain conditions, to search for the most challenging possibilities to combine future thoughts with contemporary materials.

Dwight Marica's work is extremely diverse; he uses a variety of media such as painting, sculpture, video and installation. His point of departure is the quest for total freedom, both in the methods he uses and in what he presents to the viewer. As a spectator, you have to let go of your preconceived ideas in order to perceive differently. By letting go, but also by latching on to the intensity of the process, the viewer can experience the freedom Marica aspires to.
